

Amine Chouaieb

Amine Chouaieb is a Tunisian award-winning entrepreneur and internationally recognized innovator who is the founder and CEO of Chifco. Before launching Chifco in 2011, Amine was a consultant at two major French consulting groups, namely Eurogroup and SINTEO.

Amine serves on the board of different NGOs, notably the Global Shapers of the World Economic Forum, Center for Young Managers (CJD) and GUSF and member of the CEED Global.

Rim Zouabi Bolger

Chief Marketing Officer at Chifco, Rim worked in marketing, communication, public relations, and as a professional coach in the private sector as well as for non-profit organizations. Rim has written numerous articles on technology and entrepreneurship that have been published on various blogs, including Chifco's.

Mehdi Karoui

Graduate of EM Lyon Business School and the Shanghai Jiao Tong University, Mehdi began his career in Strategy Consulting in France, Middle East, China and Tunisia (Capgemini Consulting, Numu Consulting). Since 2014, Mehdi is in charge of strategy, development and operations at Chifco.

Imen Gafsi Bougobba

Computer engineer, graduated from the Faculty of Science and Mathematics of Tunis (FST) in 2009, Imen has always had a passion for new technologies. She began her career as a computer engineer in TELNET then Proxym-IT before joining Chifco in 2013 as a Technical Team Leader.